Blessed Arnould Rèche

Born in a humble family, Brother Arnould started to work at a very young age to help provide for his family's needs. He came in contact with the Brothers of the Christian Schools while he was working on the construction site of a church in Charleville. He then started to take evening classes with them and teaches catechism to young vulnerable chimney sweepers. Though he initially has an inclination for the lifestyle of the Trappists and the Carthusians, he ends up entering the novitiate at age 24, which is quite late for the time.
